"One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest"
Opens March 13th at Park Hall,
Ben Lomond

MCT is proud to present "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest," by Dale Wasserman based on the novel by Ken Kesey.

Directed by Miguel Reyna, performances are Fridays and Saturdays at 8 pm and Sundays at 2 pm from March 13 through April 5. Ben Lomond's historic Park Hall, 9400 Mill Street is the venue. Tickets are $20 general and $17 for students and seniors.

Community Night, when all tickets are two for $20, is Saturday, March 14.

"The play is timeless ... as a symbol of the abuses of power. It also deals with the strength of the human spirit to rise above the fear and pain." Susan Brall, DC Metro Theater Arts

"It's chaos vs order in a touching story of fear, courage, rebellion and heart. A dive into resisting the constructs of conformity and finding friendship with those with whom you least expect to find it."

- Director Miguel Reyna

MCT's production features some of Santa Cruz's favorite performers, including Kip Allert, Avondina Wills, Jennifer Galvin, Jackson Wolffe, Jacob Kofler, Michael LaMère, Steven Capasso, Scott Kravitz, Stephen Phillipps, Shireen Doyle, Gino Danna, Jocelyn McMahon-Babalis, August Materazzi, Adrian Miller, Peter Gelblum, Donna Johansen, Tom Goldrup.

There will be a champagne reception after the performance on opening night, March 13 and a talkback with the director and cast after the performance on Sunday, March 22. Tickets can be purchased at mctshows.org and brownpapertickets.com.

"One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" is presented by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc., a Concord Theatricals Company."

Mountain Community Theater (MCT) is Santa Cruz County's longest continuously running theater company. MCT is a member-run non-profit organization that derives its support primarily from performance proceeds, charitable donations, and royalties from its published play, "Miracle on 34th Street, the Play." Park Hall is located at 9400 Mill Street in Ben Lomond, just 17 minutes away from downtown Santa Cruz.
